RECORD OF EVENTS

The Second Battalion, 318th Infantry, is cited for outstanding performance of duty during the period 25 to 28 December 1944. The Battalion was heavily engaged with the enemy in the vicinity of Ettelbruck, Luxembourg, when it was withdrawn from the front lines for the movement to the Bastogne, Belgium area. Its effective rifle fighting strength had been reduced to two hundred men. Attacking on Christmas Day after several days without rest, the Battalion began its assault of the enemy positions encircling Bastogne, Belgium. Throughout the next four days and three nights, the depleted Battalion battled its way in freezing temperature through the strongly held woods and villages separating our troops from the besieged forces in Bastogne. The stubborn resistance of the enemy and well dug in positions required constant use of the bayonet and hand grenade in their destruction. Suffering heavy casualties, constantly exposed to raking enemy machine gun and small arms fire from flanking positions, the Battalion fought on with an unrelenting determination that overcame all obstacles, routed the enemy and established contact with the forces within Bastogne. The aggressiveness of the heroic infantrymen of the second Battalion, 318th Infantry, reflects the finest traditions of the Army of the United States.
