This Magazine is not published for profit—it is intended to serve those who served in the great World War. Its Staff is limited. They knock off a few days every month to get out the magazine. Sometimes other duties interfere and the Magazine is late getting to you. We ask your patience at such times. Owing to Reunion activities and getting out our Annual Yearly Letter to every Blue-Ridger on our mailing list, (there are twenty-five thousand at this time) we have been compelled to consolidate the May and June issues into one number. We have made every effort to give double value and we anticipate that you will be satisfied. Don't forget Charleston, W. Va., 1922.
