In December 44 - and Jan - Feb 45 the weather was so bad and so cold, we managed to do our job, and stay alive. My job as a 19 yr old platoon Sgt. was to see that the platoon did its job, and to keep the men alive. My commander (Capt Beisner) told me to be sure and keep the men from freezing, by keeping them awake am

I wish I could tell you more. It has been a long time. Most of my memories of the 317 are about the weather + hardships.

I am sending a few papers from an 80 Bix booklet. It doesn't mention the 317, but it was there.

Regards

May Munro
