

Lloyd Bowes Interview

Company A, Company C, Service Company, S-4, 319th Inf Reg
(Aug 2001, interviewed by COL(ret) Grant Porter)
(MS Word Audio Transcript [NOT edited, just transcribed])

00:00:16 Speaker 1

Wide a bold person and an entry entry and active.

00:00:21 Speaker 1

I was in 319 First Battalion page on the Sea Company and Service Company and with this four dying for a while I had to be relieved of that position and went to a line company, which is the dumbest thing that I could ever.

00:00:38 Speaker 1

But.

00:00:41 Speaker 1

Every day you had a password. I still remember one we were caught in our on our jewelry of liver done. And I know it's our own. We could hear boom, boom, boom. It's back.

00:00:53 Speaker 1

Up on it.

00:00:54 Speaker 1

Yeah. So I'm on the radio and I'm.

00:00:59 Speaker 1

Get it off of us.

00:01:00 Speaker 1

So he said. You're talking to a C the red April 6.

00:01:05 Speaker 1

I said I will be taught that Jesus Christ and about 5 seconds if you don't raise our jewelry, it's an artillery observer came on, he said. How far short of the based one and then the crossroad out from us that should have been their base point I said 5000 yards that got it up.

00:01:22 Speaker 1

And that was not a stranger stories. I think I have an episode now. Let's go eat lunch.

00:01:30

OK. Thanks a lot.

00:01:32

You're welcome.

00:01:34

Oh, that was great.